Women should not be always as innocent princess in fairy tale,wait prince to save her life.Because only you can do that.

If someday you get sick,taking medication yourshelf, you can do it yourself, right? Do not always wait for someone to come alongside you, cajole care graciously you and that makes the whole world envy as the Korean film. In your life there will be times when you realize you are alone and you have to learn to get used to it.

It will be rained suddenly, do not always stay in one place waiting for someone to pick up and give me hugs tightly.Don't be like that, learning how to prepare yourself everythings, do not be so dependent on someone, because without them, what would you do?That's better to prepare your raincoat yourself and go.

Women in the 21st century may boast that they are truly independent for the first time in our social history. They may tell themselves and each other that they don't need a man. They can even start a family on their own thanks to IVF techniques.

But, while feminists may argue this proves women have finally kicked off the shackles of dependence on men, I'm afraid they're wrong.

In evolutionary terms the huge cultural changes over the past generation amount simply to the merest blink of an eye. It could take another 10,000 years for women to change their thinking.

Quite simply, women are preprogrammed to feel dependent on men. Even today women may be richer and enjoy all the trappings of success but, deep down in their psyche, they fear they can't survive alone.

These women may be shooting up the career ladder and earning more than the men in their lives, but when it comes to relationships men still hold the trump card.

Whatever happens, a woman should always be a woman - well-groomed, caring, gentle and loving. Always, in any circumstances.

It's easy to say ... But children need constant attention, the husband needs attention, housecleaning... Where can I find more time and energy on myself ?!

At all times, women were kept a double whammy - the house and the care of children and family.

But we also work on an equal basis with men. The main thing is do not overdo it, remember that drowning in work, you are automatically encroach on their beauty and good humor. Lack of sleep, exhausting hours of work, which gradually replace the cleaning in the house. A good sleep for a woman is the best cosmetics.

Psychologists know that each person is:

- 1) child inside (he has specific emotions, feelings, sensations),
- 2) * (responsible for the mind, the logic of actions),
- 3) parent (always dictates that "necessary" and that "it is not important").

So, the woman is interesting when her character, behavior, thought and deed prevails by child - playful, cheeky, funny, mysterious and mischievous girl.

And if a woman basically forgot about the emotional, childlike carefree nature and froze her soul and behavior, carrying different rules, restrictions, instructions, prohibitions, calculations, morals, common sense, she becomes that bother * and boring parents.

Stay inside the immediate and playful child. Be that attractive, joyful and sunny, which your husband once made a marriage proposal. For the families and relatives always stay gentle, feminine and easy-going and good emotions, generous love and positive.

Good luck!
